

ADULT LEARNING LISTING

MARCH 2021

FREE COURSES

Many of our courses are free* to low income earners and we have additional financial support available to support you on your learning journey.

We are committed to helping you navigate the challenges ahead and offer many work-ready programmes. Contact us for more information and advice.

KEEPING YOU SAFE

Westminster Adult Education Service offers daytime, evening and weekend qualifications and short courses for employment and leisure.

To ensure the safety of all our staff and learners, we are continually monitoring the government's advice and will adapt our learning as needed.

Most of our programmes will continue to have some online and blended learning options and we will support any learners who need to self-isolate.

For course information in full, visit www.waes.ac.uk/courses

CONTACT US

Our centres are open for enrolment, but in order to keep everyone safe, we are asking that you enrol online or by phone rather than coming in to the centre unless you need help with your enrolment.

Please visit www.waes.ac.uk/courses to find the course you are interested in and then complete the online application.

Focusing on Employment

WAES offers a range of work-focused learning opportunities and qualification courses that will get you ready for the world of work. Whether your work situation was affected by the pandemic, or you are returning to work after a break, looking for a promotion in your current career, or wanting to move into a new field you've always dreamed about, we have courses that can get you started.

We also have intensive work-ready programmes that can give you the right set of skills and tools to get into work quickly.

We also run programmes throughout the year that help to enhance your employment readiness, such as CV workshops, interview preparation, and many more.

Visit our website for more information, or give us a call, we can help!

Distance Learning Offer

WAES offers a range of distance learning courses, many of which are fully funded. Every course allows you to achieve a nationally recognised qualification and you receive help and guidance from a dedicated team of tutors throughout your study. Best of all, you can study at your own pace.

Distance Learning Courses:

- Functional Skills
- Business Skills
- Childcare & Early Years Education
- Health & Social Care.

Visit our website for more information.

Funding and Support

Fees are found against each of the courses listed along with concessionary rates, where applicable. There are many options to help you fund your studies, our advisors are here to help!

Higher level offer

The government has recently announced changes to the funding rules and some Level 3 courses will now be available on a fully funded basis for learners who meet the criteria. The details of this funding is still being ironed out, so contact us and see if we can help you get started on your journey to a new career.

For those courses that do not fall within this offer, Advanced Learner Loans are available for individuals aged 19 or above to undertake approved qualifications at Levels 3 to 6. These loans give you access to financial support for tuition costs similar to that available in higher education and are administered by Student Finance England. You can find out more at www.waes.ac.uk/services/loans.

FREE* English for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL)

ESOL courses from beginner to advanced levels run regularly throughout the year. We offer part-time and full-time courses during the day, evening and at the weekends for permanent or temporary residents in the UK.

Our teaching staff are fully-qualified with years of experience to help you develop your English reading, writing, speaking and listening skills which lead to recognised qualifications.
